Not at least
Without some drugs in me

I hate my life and i want to die
So im gonna take some pills tonight
Im faded often please dont cry
Maybe ill finally be alright

I write these songs for myself
Nobodies listening
I got my drugs on the shelf

Grape vine neck tattoo left

Forever is such a short time, you shouldnt waste any of it

Bitch you cant fuck with me

I dont want anything
I could die right now
Love money diamond rings
It dont mean shit to me
I could get everything
We could leave right now
Rich sippin purple drinks
Tell me youd go there
Tell me we'd go there
I dont want to spend another night

People are so wrong to say that by changing your thinking you can change your situation. YOU HAVE TO CHANGE YOUR SITUATION TO CHANGE HOW YOU FEEL AND WHAT YOU THINK

ARMS

When i sing i only scream about the pain thats in my heart
Its the hurt on the inside that tears me apart

Women are guns that shoot babies

no no no no no no no no no no no no no no no

please give me the strength to live another day life is a drug dead people take come as if you were

American Spirit -

Life is a drug
Dead people take
So they dont have
To face the pain
Nobody wants to Go to heaven

How come i want
To make my escape
They want to stop me
So i dont show them
What they are missing
How they are broken
American spirit
I know you can hear this
American spirit
I cant be fearless
Why did god
Betray cain
Why do plants
Need the rain

I wanna cry
But the tears wont come out
I wanna die
Get the fuck out this house
I wanna fly
But i cant get off the ground
I wanna see can i even make it to 18

I dont know what i want
Nobody does
How do i fix what ive done
I can only run
Run away from the pain

Run away with the pain
Pain pain pain
Pain pain
There is only pain
Change change
You cant ever change
Rain rain
Please go away
Another day ay
Another face
Blue lighter in my hand
Spark a cigarette
Make my final stand
Whatll come next
The end is not the end
My friends are not my friends
My head is still spinning
Cigarettes still burning
Ashes fall on me
Pocket full of posey
Nobody knows me
Hopelessly hopelessly
Im in love
Its a drug
Im in love
With a drug

I only smoke ever day
To cope with the pain
I try to run away

But i still go insane
Blowin os never change
So the problem still remains
It's inside of my brain
Imma lonely little fae
Ghostly in the rain
You cant fight it
Run away

GEOMETRY

Im afraid of the day i wake up and finally understand

DONT LISTEN. THEY ONLY LIE. TO CHANGE YOUR PERCEPTION OF THE PAST. NO TRUTH. THE PAST NEVER HAPPENED

This is it
This is all there is
There is nothing
More than this
This is all
Youll ever get

I love you totally
So i have to hate what you want to do to me

drunk suicide
I dont wanna wake up

Pour another cup baby
Pour another cup

Im a replacement
For someone greater Than i could be
Im a disgrace cause
I dont want to be
All i could be

Who can hear me
Who is there
I live in fear
And blank stares
I need a break from everything
I cant take the pain of being
I need to wake out from this dream
But i cant even seem to leave

If this is love
Then why do i feel so alone
If you arent gone
Then why do i have to say no
If im alive
Then why dont i feel im at home
I have to hide
In my bed cause im a ghost

I want to know

Hold me tight
So i dont slip before i fall
What do i write
And whos name do i call

When i die
Would you finally let me go
When i cry
Do my tears fall slow

If youre right
Then why does this feel so wrong
I need a light
To help me burn this rope

So you just keep on telling me
Oh you keep on telling me

Stop this stop this
Its not worth it
Dont you see
What this is doing
Stop this stop this you Dont deserve it
Cant you keep Yourself from hurting
Help me help me
Please somebody
There is no one

Help me help me
Please somebody
There is nothing
That i can feel
Im so empty
I am broken
So completely
No use hoping
Nothing changes
I cant fake it
Nothing changes
I cant fake it
Im so empty
I am broken
So completely
No use hoping
Nothing changes
I wont make it
Nothing changes
I wont make it

No pain without the meds
The shadow has no end
Raindrops on my head
Fall as tears again
Everything is dead
Every colors red
What is left unsaid
Lie me down to rest
In a tomb

Black and blue
Only room
For me and you
I cant stand
All the light
Burns my skin
And my eyes
Out of time
Suicide
Reconnect
Fall aside

I missed out on everything
That seems happy about life
I dont wanna try to right these wrongs
Sometimes i cant even cry
Im addicted to the pain cant push all these thoughts away
I cant erase all my absent days
Like driftwood in the open seas
I float along distantly
The mind i occupy is further than it seems
From anything
Most time i spend remembering regretting the choices that i made Lost inna changing maze the chances that i failed to take
How i failed to change

But i cant fix the derangement
Im elusively aimless

Everybody thinks they fucking know me
Cant you see my eyes are glowing
I dont wanna talk im by my lonely
When i cry the sky is snowing

Imma fuckin angel
Cant u see my halo
Its why they always hate me
So i gotta lay low
Dont hit me with a maybe
Know im gonna say no
Nothing here could phase me
So i gotta say so

Dont hate me
Just cause i came for
A place to put my memories

All my shit is too clean
My life is like a fable

I wanna kill myself
But i know by now
What comes after death
I cant do this again
Nobody knows
The pain im in

Moon shines bright again
Day light seems to Burn my skin
Final flight again
See you tonight
Inside my head

Im a vampire
In the fucking moonlight
I hate the sun
And stay up all night
Blood flows slowly
Under your clothing
Look in my eyes
You see only loathing
Im a werewolf
And you shine so bright
I want to howl
For you tonight and
Look in my eyes
My soul is in your hands
Up in the sky
For our final dance

Life comes after death
One too many shallow breaths
Only life is after death
Always too many shallow breaths
Here we go again
Here we go again, i think

I cant say no to you again
This might finally be the end

I wish i could be back there
Dont you say i dont care
I wanna go back where Things still felt fair

Walk this way with me my dear
Walk away from all your fears
Into the dark lets disappear
Let me guide you out of here
Walk this way with me my dear
Walk away and have no fear
Nothing here could ever hurt you
Trust in that i wont desert you

Clouds inside the atmosphere
Look back over all the years
They reminisce and fall as tears
Pouring rain washes clear
Slowly as the time elapses
I shiver as the shadow passes
The structure of my heart collapses
We fall into total blackness
The path ahead ill lit by matches
(The path ahead ill lit by matches)

Lets fall into the total blackness
(Lets fall into the total blackness)
See our bodies burn to ashes
(See our bodies burn to ashes)
(Lets fall into the total blackness)

screendoor —

1 3 7 9

Static tension on my 5
Bitches out here wasting time
Im wasting my mind
Wasting my life

Wasted time
Spent wasting life
Wasted mine
Drop out you step outta line
Watch when you come up to find
Watch when you come up im live
Watch i might step on your try

Riding through the shadows
My neck holds me taught in the gallows
Hover like a phantom
My body in the water lying shallow
My heart is like a cavern
You could never guess how deep it goes
You see me when my eyes glow
When i rise up out my hollow home

Took a few weeks to get everything
Then i got my wedding ring
You aint said anything
No, no
Took a few shots to my fucking brain
Never coming up again
You aint heard anything
Yet, ay
Creeping round the house under floorboards
Looking through your screendoor
What the fuck you geekin for What

Walking through the mist past the street lights
I aint ever sleep at night could Never get my head right
Oh, no

I see the ghosts in the trees
I see them looking at me
Draggin my body to sea
Dragon my head needa breathe
Oh oh oh
Tellin the lies to deceive
Watchin the tides in the reef
Taming all lines to believe
Without a tribe i succeed
Oh sh uh
Drink all the blood that i bleed
I hear you talkin bout me
What you think u gonna see Something u want me to be
Oh fuck nah
Lost just chasing a dream
Falling straight through a seam
All trapped up high in my keep
I might just bust out a jeep

Im sick of all the lies i was fed to from the start

She said i just wanna help you find the key to your broken heart

But all the colors phase to red inside my head

No one to trust who can you really love instead

Im sick of all the lies i was fed to from the start

She said i just wanna help you find the key to your broken heart

But all the colors phase to red inside my head

No one to trust who can you really love instead

No, one to love

No, one to care

No, one can see me
No, one knows where
No, one to love
No, one to care
Only one ocean
Only one stare
Only one code is the key to the lock
Only one string is the weave of the knot
Only one string is the weave of the knot
Only one way to rip my heart apart
Only one day to sew it all up

I dont want to love myself
I dont want to care
I dont want to possess
Positive attracts the air

I dont wanna go anywhere
I dont want to see a light without you
Into to the darkness i stare
Into the depths of hell without you
I dont wanna go anywhere
I dont want to start without her
Into the darkness i share
A piece of my mind still haunts me
He cant see what we want him to
He cant see what we want
He only sees what he wants us to
He cant see what he wants

I wont want, i wont change
Every day stays the same
So why should he save himself
If the world wont change for him
If the world will take from him
He cant take for himself
They want to care but only hurt

GOD BETRAYED CAIN

Caught up in a web of lines
Untangle them is my demise
But what could really ever die
Except for all your fucking lies
I just want real joy in the world

The brightside is worse
But that's what they like
They don't wanna hurt
They don't wanna fight
To know what it's like

I had a pattern and you broke it
And now I'm all but hopeless

Why cant you help me so slowly
Why cant you let me down without choking

You want me to get lost in the processes right
Well sorry that there's Shit that is haunting me, fine

Im a sailor lost at sea
And the sea is tellin me
To jump on overboard
And dive in to the deep

I wanna get up out this rain
But i cant fucking be the same
As all the people here and there
All the people everywhere
Have you ever been this all alone aint Nobody hit your phone
Aint no place to call home
Sinkin in deep out the zone
Have you ever been this far gone
This lost out in the smoke
This blind this broke
Another league an ill choke
Have you ever been this outta line
When you cant make up your mind
When you cant even find the time
In my stomach feel the tide

Is there even more than this?
I think this's all that there is
How did we all squander it
Dont want to be just like the rest
I just need some fucking rest
That's just a lie inside my head
What's real aint outside this
What's real is in your hands
It's me, it's you
Is so fucking true
Please don't be abused
And don't just fucking use
We have to make
We have to change
All reciprocate
We are the consumer
Consciously we chose
Consume
Don't be a sheep or lamb
Lead into the slaughter
Like a brother or a daughter
Our balance is at hand
Oh fuck, we found the magic
But it's so temporary
Burning with fire is tragic
Is darkness sedentary
Light it is blinding
So what could you see
Sound waves binding
They consuming me

This is the last song that i would write for you
And i know that you know that i wanted to
And i know that youre not one much for saying goodbye
But if i cant at least god knows about how i tried
And god knows, i tried
And when i fall asleep at night
I dream and dream a thousand times
And when i fall asleep tonight
Ill dream and dream and dream about your eyes
This is the last song that i would write to you
And i know that you know that i wanted to
And why does it feel like the end is coming soon
And if it does at least i know it'll come for you to
That he'll come for you to
My heart is a ocean so deep and far and wide
And my thoughts are a sailboat crossing over the tides
And your face is a vision burned in the back of my eyes
Not in a million years could i get you off my mind
I cant get you out of my mind
And when i fall asleep at night
And when i fall asleep tonight
Ill dream and dream and dream about your eyes
This is the last song that i would write for you
And i know that you know that i wanted to
And i know that youre not one much for saying goodbye
But if i cant at least god knows about how i tried
And god knows, i tried

They can reduce me
To numbers and letters
Eerily creeping
Im not getting better
Watch as the sky
Will start burning to ashes
I hold the fire
But who lit the matches
Who wants me dead
It's a thought in my brain
All of the noises
Just all seem the same
I listen and listen
To hear all their voices
They contradict question
And say i have choices
The queen is a bee
But the bird is the word
King not supreme
What have i heard
Beyond good and evil
Devil is lived
Alive to be feeble
Dogs don't know it

You say that you like to sneeze
But what makes you like to feel it
It brings you to your knees

I got every spirit watching me
Dont know what they wanna see
Thought im air but guess im green
Lifes not fair that shits obscene
Aires tears my soul to piece
Break apart the ice release
What the fuck does this all mean
Confusing me dont know to breathe

Why the numbers counting up
Makes it worse than counting down
Aint no end insight
Turns my frown into a crown

Fraud fraud fraud fraud
I defy the mortal god
I dont think ill be for long
Will i ever see my song

Panacea = Penicillin?

My name is a lie
Where's the coal inside
Nothing is alive
So nothing ever dies
Consciousness is Emptiness i say the soul
Is less than this

You call it whole
I call it hole
A void inside is What's for-told
My memory, what Keeps me free from Stopping the lucidity but in the dream
Fluidity, cause
Nothings ever as it seems
What is here but misery
Poetry to Keep the peace
There is only
But one piece
You say it one
But call it three 1 and 2 plus nought to be
Seemingly infinitely
You say you must Believe to be
But some things
Are definitely

Like the code
That holds us so
To choose to fight
Or loose and flow
Nothings ever meant to grow
Energy just holds us so

Prisoners all down below
Who ever wants to die alone
But we are only ever alone
No plus no plus no plus no
Ho plus ho plus ho plus ho
I gave up on light some time ago
Saint Nick holds with vicely choke

Do you even believe in the past?
How could it have come to pass
A web of lies I see for-trapped
We are withheld from all the facts

Everything's a lie
Yet everything must die
But even death does not survive

I choose
I lose
Another hue
You think
You know
Huehuehuehue

Hexagon to lose my curse
But you only make it worse
Pentacle so ace comes first
But coming only makes us hurt

You could try a million thousand times
But the secret that surrounds our lives
Is that no matter how hard you try
You're a failure in your own right
So kill me shoot me like you do
To restart is what you choose
But try and try and try and lose
That's all you'll ever fucking do

You could make things different if you wanted
You say you can only help me if I want it
But every time it's just the same shit

It's the glasses
It's the glasses
I can't stand the fucking facts
That won't help me take the pain
It won't help me find my name
I can't look the other way
I can't figure out my way
I'm directionless the message is Not reaching me I'm hopeless
In depths of darkness destiny
Destroys my dreams directory
How less is more but lessons seem
To make me hate the whole
Of nature more I can't accept
The fact that death is not the end
Of that which holds my head intact
Is nothing less than satisfactory

Reset me to the factory but keep
The void exactly as it seems Things are never as they seem to be
I remember when the devil first came
To look at me, look at me
Looking at the screen, a mirror in my hand
And yet i cant seem to see
That all it ever is is me
Is is em, is is me
All it ever is is me
Is is em, is is me
All it ever is is me
Cant you see, it is me
All we ever never see
Is is em, is is me
All it ever is is me
We exist in loneliness
That hold us in our personalities
Trapped inside a battle for the seas
Decide which person that youd rather be
The fears i have repressed inside of me
Remind me i could only be
What i could see, what can i see
But constant misery a mystery
Of visions bottles breaking help the Ship alone at sea, a ship inside a bottle
Cant you see, rats exist to cage but the Cat is still enraged, buy the birds
Dont let them fly, clip their wings and Clear the sky of demons devilish divine

So he claws at the latch and he pulls Apart the catch 22, twenty you, twenty toes, twenty hues of color hit my eye, 4 hands of five make use of hoes to till the land and stop the plan of i, my plan divine, divide and conquer, makes us stronger yet we tear apart what makes us long for comfort in our mothers, earth is mother in your

This mortal realm is catharsis, purgatory.

Satan/natural god is the god of the mortal realm

Benign god is the god of the spiritual realm

Cartharism

The idea of two gods or principles, one good and the other evil, was central to Cathar beliefs. This was antithetical to the monotheistic Catholic Church, whose fundamental principle was that there was only one God, who created all things visible and invisible.[9] Cathars believed that the good God was the God of the New Testament and the creator of the spiritual realm. They believed the evil God was the God of the Old Testament, creator of the physical world whom many Cathars, and particularly their persecutors, identified as Satan. Cathars thought human spirits were the genderless spirits of angels trapped in the material realm of the evil god, destined to be reincarnated until they achieved salvation through the consolamentum, when they could return to the benign God.

2. Always be completely honest, omission of the truth is still dishonestly
3. Always forgive, but never forget

Time

Time is all i have

Every time you make a decision a possibility of you dies, and your past self dies, you are reborn into your future self in a world were both the past and other possible self never existed

Heart where you hit your head

Rips in my jeans

Dents in my car

Cut off my sleeves

To show off my scars

Are you afraid of the noise in the kitchen?

It calls to my ear, from my room i am beckoned

I silently watch from the corner and waiting

I watch in her eyes as the pictures relating

To moments i held in the past and decide

That i collect the memories of my time

I try to believe everything that i see

But what else to say when my senses deceive

I cant help but notice the image returning

The wheels are in motion, the engine is turning

Art is chaos

Design is order

I only fuck with drugs cause i knew that i would never fall in love

It only hurts because i knew that i would never be enough

Nothings good enough

Nothings ever good enough

Paint fireplace

Netflix is a fucking drug

Its an addiction

I do it to myself on purpose

To make myself feel worthless

I know its not like me to try and fix all my mistakes

Coming down

Turning up

Im the king of the earth

Casting my curse

Drugs in the background

Im on a hearse

I know it hurts baby

I know it hurts

What could be worse baby

What could be worse

Should i believe that energy never dies

How could i trust the thoughts in my own mind

Do we all follow the patterns and inner lines

When the sky showed its pain it was by design

Am i insane to think something is nothing?

I

I could never behave

I could never think straight

If you heard my voice would you think it was a mistake

A cigarette ties me to the mortal plane

Water is the poison coursing through my vein

Is suicide the right choice?

If i hate my own face

If i hate my own voice

A quarter of the shrooms to get my life right
I hear the demons in my room
And im up all night

Drugs are my necessity
Incessantly i rest in peace
Cocaine ecstasy
Dont mess with me or message me
My blessings to live restlessly
Your tense intentions testing me

Cigarettes and feel like self harm
Lining up the scars on my arms

You'll see
Imma make them pay
For how they treated me
Imma ball hard
Its why i gotta leave
And if i fall hard
At least i had a dream

Every song that i write is just saying the same thing
I just want to kill myself i just want to end the pain
With every step that i take im headed the wrong way
I could never find myself, let myself be lead astray

The blood i bleed, i bled for you
The tears i cry, i wept for you
The longest nights, i spent with you
All the words i said i meant for you
Baby am i dead to you?
Was it something that i said to you?
Every night alone, i dreamt of you
Everything i did, i did for you

I left my heart in the ashtray
Hoping that things could change
It was all just a mistake
You never felt the same

I would take all the of blame

I have never been so blue
Black and bruised

I remember smokin cigarettes in the benz truck
I remember gettin high with you baby good luck
I remember gettin top from her, she a good fuck

Nobody ever makes it out
Get me outta this town
Im gonna burn the house down
I swear im gonna make it out

And love without you is something i couldn't do

I cringe at the sound of hearing my own name

Nobody loves me
Nobody cares
Everyones fake to me

No one is there

Do you wanna feel that
You don't gotta feel bad

Dont ever try to break my heart again

And I cant deal with the fact that you dont even know my name
And i couldnt take the pain of seeing your face every day

You know im onto that

Who can relate
To the feeling
To the pain

I just want to run away
To a place where no one knows me
I could never be another face another waste of life unfolding

Composition of air lines
Mask with glue

I wanna feel your body beneath my skin
Breathe out the fire the ash is the place im in

Fuck me in the back of my car baby
Fuck me till you hear my heart beating
Love me like you did when you werent with me
Love me, play a part in my tragedy

I shouldve noticed that

I remember meeting you

I remember seeing you

I remember me and you in the parking lot

I remember skipping class a lot

Imma fall until you save me

What could be worse than what ive already been through,
I could take more, fuck your bitch in the benz too
Whisper your curse while i take drugs in my bedroom
What could be worse than what ive already been through
I know that it hurts, fake friends in the back view
Broken down bud put your head on the menu
What could be worse than what ive already been through Triple nine fake, Satans plate, watch the ground move

Ive been through, ive lived through more shit than i care to, i wish that id dare to commit to my plan, you, i see you, i hear you, i cant help but need you, i wish that you'd finally just let me be near you, i hurt more, i bleed more, when you knock at my door, i can't stop the black dog, the heart in my throat drops, i'd lie for you, i'd die for you, for once won't you just let me do it, i need to feel like i matter to you, i need to feel like you want me to

But even if i can't make my own way
I know i'm gonna die out one day
Sooner or later but more sooner than later
Even if the fame hurts i hope i impressed her
Get her in my bed as i slowly undress her
You're messing with my head but your girl gave me head first I'll fuck your friend's girl too and make it a threeway
I know you all mad cause you ain't livin' my way you're worth more as a stranger to me a strange stranger staring strangely how strange is that stranger the stranger that sparringly stares or the stare from a stranger whose sparring of staring is strained the stranger who stares less may stare more strangely but the straining starrer only sparringly offers their strange which is more strange?

to me, the strange is what's worth more than the stranger

I hate everyone
I hate everybody
I hate everything

That reminds me of you
I hate being alive
I hate seeing your eyes
If i just took my life
A funeral for two
Am i going to die?
Why did i take my life?
Why do the voices in my head
Decide to haunt me?
Would you just watch me cry
Would you just let me lie
Why would you break my heart then throw it back to taunt me?

I know that i am an addict
I know cause it hurts without it
I know that i must admit
I know cause i cant without it
Why does everybody hate me
Can anybody even relate to me
I dont know why girls date me
How you a friend if youre fake to me
I dont wanna be in public
You would never see me drugless
Deep inside my hearts corrupted
You could never get my love bitch
Casting spells i practice magic Like poetry our love is tragic
Torn out pages burn to ashes
See the screen and watch the static
Was as skin melts into fabric

Watch as my whole life collapses
Watch as my whole life collapses
Watch as my whole life collapses
Watch as my whole life collapses

I know i could change the world
I could change it for you
But you wouldnt want to see things the way that i do
